

Act II

review the quotes in context

- It is winter in here yet
- And where she walks the crowd will part like the sea for Israel
- You cannot keep it, John
- You will not judge me more, Elizabeth. I have good reason to think before I charge fraud on Abigail
- Still an everlasting funeral marches round your heart
- The magistrate sits in your heart that judges you (1164)
- She mumbled
- It's a strange work for a Christian girl to hang old women
- And she thinks to kill me, then to take my place
- why was Goody Osburn hanged? P. 1166
- I saved her life today
- And thinks to kill me, then to take my place
- Golden candlesticks p. 1170
- Ten commandments (dramatic irony) p. 1172
- But I know the children's sickness had naught to do with witchcraft p. 1173
- Cheever p. 1176-1177
- I'll tell you what's walking in Salem...but now the little crazy children are jangling the keys of the kingdom, and common vengeance writhes the law p. 1179
- Hale p. 1180 Dynamic or static?
- I cannot charge murder on Abigail...she'll kill me p. 1180
- You will tell the court what you know
- I will bring your guts into your mouth but that goodness will not die for me p. 1181